

UC Davis Young Composers Workshop

10 a.m.–3p.m., Monday–Thursday

$465 || Application Open ... APPLICATION DEADLINE MARCH 31

APPLY HERE: https://ucdavis.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_80rka9jOtOrainn

This summer camp is designed for high school-aged composers interested in many musical styles, including but not limited to classical music, film music, video game music, avant-garde, musical theatre, and electronic music. During the course of the two weeks, participants will create a new composition that will be performed in a culminating concert at the end of the camp.

The workshop will include the following activities:

- Group listening / score study + discussion (daily)
 - Dictation (i.e. ear-training / notation) + aural skills (daily)
- Composition Workshop / Lessons
- Real-time notation sessions (i.e., speed composing + critique)
- Conducting
- Group Improvisation
- Group discussions
- Guest artists lectures / workshops
- Culminating event: a performance of students' original pieces

MUSCT6 July 29–August 9

MUSCT8 August 12–23

About the instructors: The Young Composers Workshop will be lead by our instructors, Daniel Godsil and Ryan Suleiman.

To learn more about them, please visit their websites

www.danielgodsil.com | www.ryansuleiman.com

CONTACT RYAN OR DANIEL WITH ANY QUESTIONS

UC DAVIS
CAMPUS RECREATION AND UNIONS